Key Takeaways

You can purchase cable trays in the Bahamas from local manufacturers like Jeetmull Jaichandlall (P) Ltd. and Brilltech Engineers Pvt. Ltd., which offer a variety of sizes, materials, and installation support. Local Suppliers

Jeetmull Jaichandlall (P) Ltd. is a trusted cable tray manufacturer in the Bahamas, providing high-quality trays in various sizes, shapes, and colors. They have an on-site manufacturing facility with modern equipment and can tailor cable trays to meet specific industry requirements, ensuring durability and compliance with standards . Brilltech Engineers Pvt. Ltd. also supplies cable trays in the Bahamas, offering products made from galvanized steel, stainless steel, and fiberglass. Their trays are designed for durability, safety, and optimal cable management, including perforated options for improved airflow. Brilltech provides additional services such as product selection guidance, system design, and installation support .

Other Options

For general electrical supplies, including cable trays, CBS Bahamas offers a range of wiring and electrical products suitable for residential and commercial projects . Additionally, international suppliers like McMaster-Carr provide a wide selection of cable trays with same-day or next-day delivery, which may be an option if local stock is limited .

Tips for Purchasing

- Material choice: Select trays based on environmental conditions (e.g., stainless steel for corrosion resistance).
- Size and type: Ensure the tray dimensions and perforation style match your cable load and airflow requirements.
- Support services: Consider suppliers that offer installation guidance or custom fabrication for complex projects. By contacting these suppliers directly, you can get quotes, confirm availability, and arrange delivery or installation services tailored to your project needs.
