 - Stainless steel cable trays are noted as cost-effective and durable, suitable for long-term installations, though specific prices are not listed online .
- Notes
- Prices vary by stainless steel grade (304 vs 316), tray width and depth, and pack size.
 - 316 stainless steel is generally more expensive due to higher corrosion resistance, suitable for aggressive or outdoor environments.
 - Most suppliers offer next-day delivery or local collection in Ireland.
 - VAT is typically not included in the listed prices unless specified. For procurement, it is recommended to compare RS Online, Dwyers Electrical, and Electrical Wholesaler Ireland for the best combination of price, size, and stainless steel grade.
